Tender Traces

Ice crystals, blue skies, tracks in the snow, a clear, freezing-cold winter's day. Relax and beat the winter blues with the men's and women's hats and caps from the Winter Collection 2014/15.

The current collection focuses on soft knitwear, felt and lambskin. Wintery pastels, warm shades of stone and beige as well as classic dark blues, reds and black dominate the palette. Luxurious materials, natural, harmonious shapes and complex styling underline the simple beauty and poetry of this collection exquisitely made by hand.

Hand-knitted and fur caps made of the finest Italian baby alpaca wool and Spanish lambskin have been given a new look with sleek and soft lines. The headbands and caps fit snugly and gently, citing the classic shapes of headpieces such as the turban or peaked cap.

The felt hat is also a must-have in 2014/15. The trilby, cloche and award-winning foldable hat stand out due to their convincingly clear design and innovative workmanship. Intricate stitching replaces the classic grosgrain ribbon and accentuates the purity of their stylistic language.

The sculptural yet soft silhouette of the unusual fascinators is captivating. The headpieces, fashioned by hand from rabbit fur felt, complement every evening outfit and impress with a reservedly glamorous and feminine elegance.
